Voorhees Nominated for Congress

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., July 18.—The Democratic Congressional Convention of the Sixth District held a meeting to-day and nominated D. W. Voorhees by acclamation. In accepting Voorhees made a long and elaborate speech. In his opening remarks returning thanks for the nomination he denounced bitterly the course of the Administration toward the South and said the South had urged the nomination of Greeley believing that his election would secure them peace and relief from the outrages which had been heaped upon them. He prayed to God that their hopes might be realized that many Northern men would suspend their differences with Greeley on account of the people of the South who would not do it on their own account. If Greeley was elected he would stand pledged by the strongest obligations that ever rested upon an honorable man to bestow upon the South the blessings of a just, kind and paternal policy. If he didn't, after the confidence reposed in him by the South, he might be accursed. He would hope however that the best hopes of the South would be realized and peace and prosperity return to them once again as before. The rest of his speech was devoted to an elaborate review and criticism of the policy and acts of the Administration

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—The Liberal Republicans have organized a State Central Committee among the members of which are S. S. Tilton, late President of the Republican State Central Committee, George Barstow, both Wetherbee, C. Morrill, ... and other old and prominent Republicans.

James ... Emery on behalf of the importing merchants of San Francisco presented a protest to the Board of Equalization against the taxation of claims on debts due to importing houses for goods imported and sold but not yet paid for, and taxable in the hands of the purchaser, on the ground that this amounts to double taxation and further that an importer is made to pay the second tax on claims which may not even be worth a cent upon the dollar. The matter will be taken before the Supreme Court for adjudication if an unfavorable decision is made by the Board.

Among the terms of peace which Horace Greeley proposed in 1864 was the following: The Union to pay four hundred millions dollars in five per cent United States stock to the late slave States loyal and secession alike, to be apportioned pro rata according to their slave population respectively, by the census of 1860, in compensation for the losses of their loyal citizens by the abolition of slavery.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN STATES

New York News

NEW YORK, July 19.—Alfred S. Dusenbury, a lawyer, committed suicide by shooting himself last evening in his house. His mind is supposed to have been affected by sunstroke.

A Washington dispatch says officially about Casey holding on as Collector at New Orleans that the administration Republicans recommend a person to take his place. The President therefore holds his resignation.

The World says that Greeley is hard at work on a new encyclopedia which will be published soon.

SARATOGA, July 19.—Longfellow will be taken in the morning to Long Branch.

Most of the horses that have run at Saratoga will run in the Long Branch races in August.

Harper says that should Longfellow fully recover and be fit to race again he should not be allowed to start in another race, even if he were certain of winning $100 000.

The Sumner Letter

NEW YORK, July 19.—A Washington dispatch says that the letter recently published by Reeves, from Senator Sumner, was written one year ago, while Greeley was in Texas and when he was talked of as a candidate for the Presidency.

Mr Greeley recently declined to furnish money to sustain a new paper in Washington, saying: "I do not consider that a legitimate political expenditure. If the people will not support a newspaper favoring my election we must go on without as best we may."

Still Bragging

The Liberal Republican Executive Committee say they are receiving letters from prominent colored men promising to work for Greeley and Brown.

Cameron on Forney

HARRISBURG, July 19.—An interviewer reports Cameron as saying that the opposition of Forney and his Press to Hartranft for Governor don't amount to a puff of wind. Forney, he says, is self-reproachful and therefore nurses a fancied bitterness toward everybody else. He feels spiteful to Hartranft because of an unpleasant admission he was compelled to make in the Evans fraud examination. Cameron afterwards commenced on Forney's familiarity with the Evans case and said it is believed that Forney will soon find some reason for deserting Grant. He does not think that McClure or Morehead have much influence.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

From Madrid

MADRID, July 19.—At midnight last night an attempt was made to assassinate the King and Queen of Spain. Their carriage was fired on. One of the assassins was killed and two captured. The King and Queen were driving home from Palace Garden when the would-be assassins fired upon them. Neither was hurt however. There is immense excitement in the city. The assailants of the King and Queen comprised a party of men who were conveniently posted on the street. One of the assailants was immediately killed by an attendant of the royal party. The greatest indignation is everywhere expressed at the cowardly deed. The tranquility of the city is undisturbed, although when accounts of the affair began to be generally circulated there was much excitement. Crowds gathered in the neighborhood of where the attack had been made, and at 4 o'clock almost the entire population of Madrid were hastening through the streets. Their Majesties maintained their self possession during the scene of excitement which ensued upon the attack and brief conflict with the assassins, and when quiet was in a measure restored, proceeded to the palace, where they are now receiving numbers of the Ministry and civil and military authorities of the city, and deputations from the people. Much enthusiasm is manifested in rejoicing over the failure of the murderous attack.

King Amadeus will visit Satador to-morrow pursuant to a previously formed determination.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—Stock sales in the regular Board are not up to the averages. Sales in open board are very light. There was a general rally at the last Board and prices are again higher.

Subscription to the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Co's stock now aggregate $375 000. A great number of $100 subscriptions are being received, indicating a popular interest in the enterprise.

The Cedarburg Mining Co have accumulated an immense mass of enormously rich specimens from the mine in Eldorado county and will soon give a public exhibition in San Francisco. A large case of specimens of nearly pure gold will be sent to New York. Magnificent specimens of leaf gold like a head of lettuce will be sent to the Emperor of Russia and another of rich ore gold to Queen Victoria.

Noah Mullendore of the Call shot two weeks ago by McCauslin died this morning.

The bark ... cleared for Liverpool with a full load of wheat to-day.

The ... is nearly loaded and the Aurora and ... are loading for the same destination.

After August 1st the City Gas Co will reduce their rates to $1 ... per 1 000 feet. A few years since the charge was $7.

The Ellis Ansbro O'Gorman Auffray case is still going on. The evidence of several witnesses to-day was positive that Ellis, the private detective, came here from Australia and introduced himself under the name of Philip Smith. Col Dudley, counsel for the detectives, during the examination this afternoon, was fined $25 for contempt of court and proceedings stopped until he sent out for the coin and paid the fine.

O. H. Butler has been appointed Quartermaster under C. B. Denio at the Navy Yard.

The Electrical Construction and Maintenance Company of San Francisco to-day placed an electrical annunciator in the Bernard Hotel which works with perfect satisfaction and convinces the Vallejoites that it is an indispensable requirement in all hotels.

The Coroner this morning empaneled a jury in the case of Mullendore shot by McCauslin, and after viewing the body adjourned the inquest to Wednesday next.

Wm Little was found dead in a little filthy room on Kearney street near Broadway to-day, having evidently died in utter want and destitution, if not from actual starvation.

Some curious rumors are afloat with regard to the Fair case. Among others it is asserted that Dr Lyford, who was alleged to be lying helpless from an injury received in Marin county and for the purpose of recovery and for whose testimony the case was postponed on petition of the defense, was back again in the city as well as ever and attended the theater the next day after the case was continued.

Mrs. Dunway of Oregon is lecturing in favor of Woman's Rights and General Grant to a fair audience at Platt's Hall this evening. Her voice is not strong enough to be heard over the quarter part of the hall and as a public speaker she is hardly a success.

The Young Men's Democratic Club and Young Men's Greeley Club are holding a large ... meeting at the Mercantile Library Hall.

... O'Gorman, Ansbro, Allis, Auffrey came ... before ... as far as the Police Court is concerned this evening. Judge Louderback at the ... the remarks of Colonel Dudley, ... counsel ... Ansbro and Allis dismissed the charge of assault with deadly weapon preferred by detectives against Auffrey and committed Ansbro for trial on a charge of ... O'Gorman. He then under the law making it his duty to prefer a charge when a crime is found to have been committed in the course of the examination of a case, ordered both ... alias Allis the Australian into custody on a charge of perjury and fixed the bail of each at $5 000. The audience immediately commenced applauding and the manifestation was with difficulty checked by the officers in attendance. The cases go at once before the grand jury now in session but it is hinted there is reason to apprehend that strong efforts will be made to prevent an indictment being found.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

STOCKTON, July 19.—The Union Republican primary election in this county takes place to-morrow.

A dramatic entertainment at the theater this evening presented by a dramatic association of the State University assisted by young ladies of this city attracted a good house.

John Ramsay was arrested to-day on a charge of grand larceny and held to answer before the Grand Jury.

J. ... Sherman and a Chinaman were to-day committed to the Insane Asylum.

LOS ANGELES, July 19.—To-day has been generally observed as a holiday—the occasion being the laying of the corner stone of the new school edifice. The ceremonies were conducted by the Masonic fraternity. The procession formed and marched through the principal streets preceded by bands of music. The corner stone was laid with appropriate ceremonies.

SAN JOSE, July 19.—A large crowd of citizens, headed by Classen's band, are serenading Hon. S. O. Houghton this evening.

VALLEJO, July 19.—There was a Grant and Wilson meeting at this place to-night. A great many names were enrolled when the meeting adjourned till to-morrow at 3 P. M., for the election of officers.

POLITICAL NOTES

There is a colored Greeley and Brown club in Indianapolis composed of a hair dresser named Maharney.

The Louisville Courier-Journal is disgusted with the impracticables who would rather be right than win. This plain admission tells the whole story.

Trumbull is said to have lost his watch and chain worth $400, while making a speech at the Liberal Convention in Springfield. This was a kind of liberal proceeding that Trumbull don't appreciate. It is said that several Democrats sat near him while he was speaking.

When shall we hear from Lane and Gates on the Greeley question? Not that we care, but Jasper Johnson and the other two Liberals of Oregon want to "know you know" if there is to be no chance for them on the ticket.

The usual spectacle, presented when the Hon. James M. Ashley, of impeachment fame, embraced on the rostrum at Toledo, Ohio, his old Copperhead opponent and both pledged themselves in true Nasby style for Greeley and Brown, extorts this quotation from the Blade:

> I saw two clouds at morning
> Tinged with the rising sun,
> At noon they glided onward
> And mingled into one.

And Nasby, his voice rising from the background, exclaims: "Bless you my children, bless you!"

Ethan A. Allen of New York city, the only surviving grandson of the hero of Ticonderoga, writes as follows to the New York Times: "As a good deal of prominence is given to an individual called Ethan Allen who appears to be somewhat active in the Greeley organization, it will oblige the only surviving grandson of Colonel Ethan Allen, of revolutionary memory, by stating that this Greeley Allen is not in the slightest connected with the old hero's family."

Deforming Children

[From the New York Times.]

Some time ago a gentleman seeing a most extraordinary mass of deformity wriggling about in the streets of London, accosted it, and asked how it managed to get a living. "Why, sir, I gets run over by the carriages of the nobility and gentry, and they gives me compensation, and I does pretty well." Recent experience goes to prove that a less hazardous course is now adopted, with the aim and end of obtaining the valuable stock in trade of a deformed figure. In an old house situated in a secluded alley of Highgate, a northern suburb of London, the police are reported to have discovered an establishment for which the familiar "Mangling Done Here" would be the most appropriate placard. "Messrs Willis, Bateman & Co."—they adopted this style—have here been actively carrying on business as manglers and sham malady makers. Persons brought their children of tender years to have their legs twisted, and their bodies otherwise dealt with, in the manner most likely to draw from the pockets of the benevolent. The tariff varied particularly as to age. Thus, a child under a year old could have its little soft malleable leg twisted for the moderate sum of $7—while $10 was the charge for one six months older, and so on, by a graduated scale. Other injuries were charged for pro rata, but a child of tender years could be twisted in a manner satisfactory to the most greedy of gain for $30—exclusive of a charge for board. What arrangements were made when the child died during the process which was to make it lucrative is not stated, but no doubt they were of an equally satisfactory character. The other branch of the company's benevolent operations was the fitting out adult persons to gain their living, for the day, with sores, deformities, blindness and where ladies were concerned putting them into an apparently interesting state. The existence of this most ingenious trade is surely another marvelous proof of the nineteenth century progress. Athens and Rome, even in their palmiest days could not have produced its like.

Twenty two years ago said Mr Colfax at South Bend, the people elected me a delegate to the Constitutional Convention that framed the State Constitution under which we now live. It was before there was any anti-slavery agitation in this country, and when it was proposed in that Convention that you should have in that Constitution an article providing that no colored person should ever step on the soil of this free State of Indiana, I for one, though then young in years, rose and branded it with the condemnation it deserved. I said then that such a provision in the Constitution of a free State was a dishonor to it, that such a provision in the Constitution of a civilized State was a disgrace to it, and in behalf of the people of this country I denounce it, and continue to denounce, and although it received 8 000 majority in this district and 90 000 majority in this State, yet I felt assured that in the advancing march of civilization in this country and in this State, there would come a time when no man in the broad confines of Indiana would not blush to acknowledge any such constitutional provision. I denounced the proposition then, and rejoice that it has since been trampled upon by the judicial tribunals of our State as a scandal and a disgrace.

MINING PATENTS.—Since the passage of the new mining act facilitating and cheapening the acquisition of titles the journals in the mount... counties are full of advertisements of applications for patents to both quartz and gravel claims. Commissioner Drummond of the General Land Office at Washington has issued a circular explaining the new law and laying down instructions for the guidance of Registers, Receivers and Surveyor General in each State and Territory containing gold and silver mines. The instructions are very full and seems to furnish ample guide on all mooted points. Surveyors General are directed to appoint to each mining district as many competent deputies for the survey of mining claims as may seek such appointment, it being distinctly understood that all expenses of notices and surveys are to be borne by the mining claimants, the claimant to have the option of employing any deputy he prefers to do his work. Under this more favorable and economical working of the new law, it is probable that nearly every mining claim of any value in the Pacific coast will eventually be patented to its owners. The result will be to encourage the investment of capital in such property, to stimulate legitimate mining enterprise and to make mining property bear its just proportion of taxation.

The Liberal papers accused the President of being too fond of the sea and it is a fact he does like it. To quote the words of a correspondent of the Pittsburg ..., "He has a Fish in his Cabinet, his fondness for sea gars is well known, and during the war he used to go on whaling expeditions which sometimes caused his adversaries to blubber."

HAS RETURNED TO PORTLAND

Evidences of His Success while on Puget Sound

[From the Morning Herald.]

We notice the return of Dr. Aborn who has been paying a professional visit to the Sound country where he has performed a great number of miraculous cures and operations. The Olympia Transcript speaks of him in the following terms: "We call attention to the cards in to-day's paper, in reference to the treatment and skill of Dr. Aborn. He has been on the Sound but a few weeks, but in that time he has given such great benefit to many of our citizens that it is particularly worthy of note."

A Lady Nearly Blind for 8 Years can now See to Read Fine Print, which is Due to the Skill of Dr. Aborn.

PORTLAND, Oregon, July 16 1872

TO THE PUBLIC.—FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE afflicted I hereby state that my wife had been afflicted with granulated lids and inflamed sore eyes (caused by the measles) for the last eight years. They had become so bad that she could scarcely see to walk, and the lids were inverted so that the eye lashes were turned in against the ball of the eye, which would soon have caused total blindness. One eye was so near totally destroyed that she could only just discern daylight, but now, thanks to the knowledge of DR. ABORN and his skillful operations, her lids are cured—they now raise up from the ball of the eye naturally. The eye-lashes do not turn in against the ball now but they ... their natural position. This was effected by a neat surgical operation performed upon each eye by DR. ABORN. The granulations are removed, and the inflammation, cloud and spots are so completely removed from the eyes that she can see to read fine print. We would have applied to the Doctor sooner than what we did, but for outsiders trying to persuade us that the Doctor was not skilled in his profession and that he would put her eyes out. But upon investigation I was convinced that he has never put any one's eyes out, but found all his patients and those who had been under his treatment unanimous in their praise of the Doctor's great success and skill in these delicate operations. I have been living in Seattle W. T. for the past six years but have now removed to Kittitas Valley W. T.

jy18 JOHN A. SHOUDY

MIRACULOUS CURE

John L. Clark of Olympia, who has been so severely afflicted for years and considered hopeless, is now fast regaining his health under the treatment of Dr. Aborn. The following is Mr. Clark's statement concerning himself:

TO THE PUBLIC

For two years I have been severely afflicted with Catarrh, Throat, Bronchial and Lung Disease and Ulceration of the Stomach. Have been treated by sixteen different physicians without any benefit; expended over $5,000; had been given up to die. Two weeks ago I put myself under the care of Dr. Aborn, and to my great joy and surprise I have improved wonderfully, which all my friends can readily see. I can now eat and relish my food and my ... is healed. Have gained ... fully in strength and flesh, and I now ... entertain hope that, under Dr. Aborn's skillful treatment, I shall be entirely cured.

ANOTHER REMARKABLE CURE.

[From the Olympia Tribune.]

Elsewhere in our local columns will be found a letter from Mr John L. Clark testifying to the ... skill of Dr. Aborn. Read it. Mr Clark is among the best known of our citizens and the fact of his having been in poor health for some years is equally well known to many of his acquaintances. The testimony he bears to the success of the Doctor's treatment in his case is of no doubtful character, and should add largely to the reputation of the latter as a physician.

EYES TREATED

[From the Olympia Tribune.]

This morning Dr. Aborn performed a neat surgical operation upon the eyes of a lady from Seattle—Mrs. Shoudy—who, we are informed, has been nearly blind for ten years. By this operation and the Doctor's skillful treatment she will have her eyesight perfectly and permanently restored. He also performed a similar operation upon Mr. Barnes, a resident of Tumwater, with a like happy result.

ANOTHER EDITORIAL FROM THE OLYMPIA DAILY TRIBUNE, JULY 5.

DRAWING TO A CLOSE.—The visit of Dr. Aborn to-morrow will be his last day in Olympia. During his brief sojourn in our midst he has effected some miraculous cures and performed several surgical operations, the success of which have materially augmented his reputation for skill. The persons who have been relieved by Dr. Aborn will gratefully remember his visit to the Sound, which it is hoped he will soon repeat.

[From the Seattle Dispatch.]

Dr. Aborn has spent a week in this city during which time he has treated many cases of chronic diseases of the eye, ear and throat, with almost miraculous success, restoring sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf and speech to the almost dumb; causing the hope to the afflicted that he will soon favor them with another visit.

RETURN ... HOME EVIDENCE OF DR. ABORN'S SKILL.—John Webster, blacksmith and ex-member of our Legislature, now a resident of Seattle and a candidate for Probate Judge, publishes a testimonial in this issue of our paper testifying that after having been deaf for over 20 years he has been restored to hearing.

REMARKABLE CURE OF DEAFNESS

SEATTLE, June 25 1872

To Whom it May Concern:

I hereby certify that I have been under the treatment of Dr. Aborn for deafness and that he has almost entirely restored my hearing. I had been quite deaf for over twenty years, and in one ear had not heard the tick of a watch for the above time; and the second day after I commenced treatment I could hear very plain and I feel like a new man.

The Philosophy of It

An attempt to define the philosophy of the Democratic surrender is made by the Herald. It assures us that the nomination of Greeley and Brown was the result of unselfish patriotism, pure disinterestedness, and that Democrats care nothing at all about the pomp of power or the profits of place. They are not tempted with such unworthy and sordid baits. The "Radicals," we are told, run the government only to make money. Democrats would organize it simply to protect Liberty. The preponderating habit of the Democratic mind is self-abnegation. It accepts Greeley solely from this motive. Your Democrat wants to "save Liberty;" he asks nothing for himself and gives his efforts solely to his country.

The difficulty is that this beautiful theory and these excellent professions will not bear examination. If the idea simply is to maintain Democratic principles and "organize Liberty," why go to Greeley? Why not stick to the old course? The truth is our Democratic friends are tired of the beautiful principle of self-abnegation. It doesn't pay. They have marched to defeat after defeat on their broad platform framed to "organize Liberty." Disinterested adherence to principle has no more charms for them. It is as profitless as honor was to Falstaff. They want to get hold of the Government and make themselves masters of whatever belongs to it that they can convert into booty, and they think the Greeley programme offers a chance. Hence they surrender their principles which they have always said were essential to "Liberty," and join the Greeley column in marching on the Postoffices. They would have confederated with any band offering them a like "lay."

To this it will be retorted that Republicans are fighting only to retain the profits of place and the rewards of power. But the cases are not parallel. They present no points of resemblance. For Republicans have not surrendered any principle; they adhere to the cardinal doctrines of the party, and accept as candidates only such men as are thoroughly identified with the objects, purposes and principles which lie at the bottom of their organization. On the other hand, Democrats surrender their whole political creed. They make no platform, but accept one framed for them by men who have always been their opponents. They stand, therefore, in the attitude of a party who have sacrificed their principles and their historic record, in the bare hope of getting into power. This is the inspiration of self rather than of patriotism.

In this State we have learned from experience what the Democratic idea of government is. We have seen how they do it. They showed us two years ago. The way they abjured all selfishness, put sordid motives behind them and "organized Liberty," was seen in the legislation of 1870, and remains to-day a monument of Democratic disinterestedness and self-forgetfulness. Plunder was the sole aim and object. Everything was subordinated to the purpose to use the State Government to make money. Hence the vicious legislation of the session, which was so signally rebuked by the people in the late election.

No, no; this claim of superior public virtue, as a reason for supporting Greeley, will hardly do. No Democrat would support Greeley were it not that he longs to taste the sweets and rewards of power. He hopes that (reversing the figure of the apocalypse) though the book he is to swallow be bitter in his mouth, it will prove sweet in his belly. The Herald is not exact or correct in its statement of the philosophy of the movement which it supports.

The Herald, in enumerating the "evils of our depreciated currency," says.

> It operates most injuriously upon the interests of Oregon and other portions of the Pacific coast; for, though we use, in most of our practical business, a specie currency here, the depreciated paper currency in the States east, retard the influx of population to this region, and population is what we most need. No one in the East, however much he would like to come to Oregon or elsewhere on the Pacific to make a permanent home, likes to suffer a discount of ten to fourteen per centum on his money capital, which, in the East, consists of paper currency exclusively. This very fact operates to keep thousands away, who, if we had a currency of uniform value, would soon be citizens among us.

Now, a man who cannot see the fallacy of the Herald's position, would be but a sorry acquisition to the population of any country, and a simple arithmetical calculation will convince even our obtuse neighbor how absurd is his reasoning on this point. For instance, a man in the East has one thousand dollars. Gold being the standard of values, his greenbacks there are worth say about eight hundred and eighty dollars. Now suppose he comes to Oregon, his greenbacks are found to be worth just about the same, eight hundred and eighty dollars, gold. Where, then, is the "discount of ten to fourteen per cent." which "he suffers by bringing his capital to this coast?" Or take it in another shape, and let the editor of the Herald take one thousand dollars gold and buy with it greenbacks on this coast, say one thousand one hundred and forty dollars, that being about the amount he could purchase for one thousand dollars, and remit his purchase to the East, and see if he can make a profit of the one hundred and forty dollars. If this proposition be correct any man who goes into the speculation above stated can soon make a fortune.

As the Bulletin still insists that its circulation is the most extensive of any paper in the State, we yet are willing that any disinterested and competent accountant shall examine the books of the two offices, and from them (because they are the only authentic sources of information on the matter) make an exhibit of the comparative circulation of the two papers. Let this examination of the books extend over the time the Bulletin has kept its statement that it "has the largest circulation of any daily paper published in Oregon" standing at the head of its columns. There can be no unfairness or "cat in the meal tub" in this manner of settling the question which the Bulletin has raised by retaining at the head of its columns as a matter of fact that which its editor admitted a few days ago was a matter of belief. The two papers are published ostensibly on the same terms, and the OREGONIAN subscription lists are printed weekly and cannot be "doctored" any more than a number of the paper can be "doctored" after it leaves the press. The books again will show just who are "dead" and who are "live" subscribers, so that the fairness of the plan cannot be denied or complained of by the Bulletin. If there is any unfairness in it, let that paper point it out, if not, let it either admit that it is unwilling to submit to the only true method of determining the matter, or rest under the imputation of retaining as a standing proposition a statement which we are satisfied would be found far from the truth upon such an impartial test. Now, sir, if you are willing that the figures shall speak for themselves and settle this dispute, we are ready to agree upon an accountant of the character indicated, or to name one man and you may name another, and the two can select such accountant. Prove that you are "confident" in your assertion by giving us the chance to prove your assertion false by this simple and incontrovertible test.

Why a Democrat will not Support Greeley

A life-long Democrat assigns the following reasons for not supporting Greeley: "In politics, as in everything else a man should be strictly honest. And above all things he should not deceive himself. In opposition to the commands of my father, as far back as 1828, I dared to believe the views of General Andrew Jackson were correct, and in 1832 voted for him when he was elected the second time. The Jackson party was merged into the Democratic party, and I have voted with that party ever since. In this some of my friends may possibly differ with me, and say I was in favor of Douglas instead of Breckinridge, in 1860. I understand the Breckinridge wing of the party were the secessionists, while the Douglas wing were opposed to the division of the Union. That was the difference before the war commenced, and that was why I voted for Douglas.

The two factions of the Democratic party divided the vote and Lincoln was elected. They have not fully united since. Under McClellan they tried to rally and failed. Under Seymour they tried again and were again defeated. I still looked forward to the time when the principles of Democracy would finally recover, but I am sadly disappointed. The disaffected Republicans have formed a party of their own, and nominated Greeley for President. A man who for forty years has been the leader of the opposition to all Democratic principles. He has not changed his political views, nor have I. The Democratic Convention has nominated him—their open and avowed enemy, a man whom the Democratic papers and speakers have for many years denounced as the very perfection of political impurity. No good could be found in Greeley or his Tribune, nothing but enmity to the Democratic party.

"Now, we life-long Democrats are asked to vote for him, and to raise him to the highest office in the gift of the American people. What for? To beat Grant. Why? Because it is alleged by Democratic leaders that Greeley is honest! What a change!—not in Greeley, but in the leaders of the Democratic party. For, when the Democratic Committee waited upon him and told him he had been nominated by the Democratic Convention, he was honest enough to tell them, 'I have never sought the nomination; I am as much a Republican as ever.' The Democracy were not deceived in his views; they have been published in the Tribune—a paper they would not allow in their house before Greeley bailed Jeff. Davis. The doctrine of the Democratic party was, 'principles, not men.' Now it is changed to 'men, not principles.'

"Greeley and myself are about the same age—he, perhaps, a little older. All our lives we have opposed each other. Neither of us have changed our long-cherished opinions. How, then, can I vote for him? I am asked to do so as a choice of evils—him or Grant. I think he is the greatest evil of the two. I am asked to take the dose as an emetic. My mind and stomach are both in good order. I do not require and have no desire for such a potion, which would make me sick indeed. I am persuaded to take it as I would take pills. I only take pills when I am sick. I am not sick now, except of the position in which we are placed by our blind leaders—with the most Radical Republican nominated by a Democratic Convention. Greeley pills won't cure that disease which makes the Democratic heart sick. I am asked to vote for Greeley because the people in the South want him. They wanted me to vote for Breckinridge for the same reason. I could not do so, though Breckinridge was a Democrat, because we differed in opinion; nor do we now agree. I am asked to vote for Greeley because he is the laboring man's friend. But I do not agree with my advisers as to who are laboring men. Greeley thinks they are manufacturers. I think the workmen are the laboring classes. He is in favor of protecting the rich. I think the rich can take care of themselves, and am in favor of protecting the poor."

The Bulletin fills two and a half columns yesterday in apologizing for its statement in regard to the pardon of the thirteen convicts and stating in an impracticable and unfair manner of ascertaining the comparative circulation of that paper and the OREGONIAN. He very greatly mistakes or wilfully misstates our motive in calling attention to his published report of the pardoning business. Grover has already done enough to condemn him forever in the estimation of the people of the State of Oregon without the concoction of any reports of such gross outrages upon justice and common sense and decency as that promulgated by our neighbor.

GRANT'S JUSTICE TO SOLDIERS. — The following incident of the late war we glean from Phelps' Life of Grant:

"When the steamers ran into Vicksburg, after the capture of that city by our forces, for the purpose of carrying our furloughed soldiers home, some of the Captains took advantage of the soldiers' eagerness, to charge the most outrageous rates. One of these heartless money grabbers was brought to terms by General Grant in the following manner:

The steamer had its decks crowded with soldiers. Grant asked a man in the wheel-house and giving orders loudly

"Are you the Captain of this boat?"

"Yes, General."

"How many soldiers have you on board?"

"About twelve hundred and fifty."

"What have you charged for fare to Cairo?"

"From ten to twenty-five dollars each, General."

"Ten to twenty-five dollars each! is that all? Why, that is too moderate? It is a pity that you should have to take the boys for so small a sum. You had better wait a while."

"Speaking to the officers on board he walked away. Then the steam whistled, the bell rang, and the wheels began to move slowly, but for some reason she was not fast off; the men could not understand it until, in a few minutes, an order came from the guard to keep the steamer until the Captain paid back all over seven dollars taken for fare from each officer, and all over five dollars from each soldier, and the order was obeyed. The men knew that they had been victimized, but felt helpless. When they learned what the General had done, they gave three cheers for Grant with a will!"

Grant said to one of his staff—

"I'll teach those steamboat men that the boys who have opened the river for them, are not to be plundered of their hard earnings on their trip home. If trade is to follow the flag so soon, it shall be honest trade so far as I can control it."

OREGON.

Up the valley the grain harvest has fairly begun.

The Enterprise says that crops in Clackamas county are generally good, and in many cases excellent.

Fifty-eight marriage licenses were issued in Clackamas county during the year ending July 1st, 1872.

The statement that Joab Powell had become insane is contradicted. We took the report from the Salem Mercury.

A new Lodge of Good Templars', with 25 charter members, and W. R. Menafee, as W. C. T., has been organized on Fifteen Mile Creek, Wasco county.

Two hundred and twenty-two applications for appointments as Notary Public, have been made to Gov. Grover during his term of office. Sixty-five of these were from Multnomah county.

The Democrat says on Monday last a little child of Mr. A. H. Perham, of Corvallis, was given a phial, containing laudanum, to play with. By some means it extracted the cork, and swallowed a quantity of the medicine, from the effects of which it never recovered.

Mart Brown, of the Democrat, dunning his subscribers, says: "This thing of us wanting money is no joke, but a horrible reality, eating like a canker worm into our very soul, and causing us to have dreams whose hideousness would appal the chief stoker in Hades."

The Albany Democrat publishes the following as one of the indications of the "great uprising" in favor of Greeley: "Mrs. Flint, of Atchison, Kansas, exclaims, 'My country! oh, my beautiful country! Would I were a million of men. Horace Greeley should have every one of my votes!' There is a woman for you as is a woman. The soul of a million of men vibrating in the body of a lovely jayhawker, and not to count. Something wrong, somewhere."

On Tuesday last a little son of Mr. Thomas, living on Norman Lilly's place, in King's Valley, about eight years of age, was playing in the field where a mower was at work. The driver of the machine did not observe the little fellow until the sickle was too close to stop the team in time to avoid an accident. The boy's leg was taken off close to his body. Surgical assistance was immediately sent for, but the sufferer died from loss of blood before aid could reach him.

THE TERRITORIES.

A raft was towed from Olympia to Port Gamble last week which contained 1,652,178 feet.

E. L. Smith was lately presented with a beautiful Past Master's gavel by the Masons at Olympia.

Bishop Morris offers a premium to either Olympia or Seattle, whichever builds an Episcopal parsonage first.

A body of silver ore has been discovered in Utah that completely throws into the shade any discovery previously made in any part of the world.

Captains Hunt and Fuller, of Camp Apache, Arizona, have resigned to avoid being turned out by court martial. Hunt was formerly commanding officer at Camp Lyon, I. T. We have not learned the nature of his offense.

At a Fourth of July celebration at Fort Simcoe some 500 persons were present. The Advocate says: "Not a profane word was heard, not a drop of liquor drank, not a disorderly act seen. Can any other crowd of 500 men, women and children say as much for the 4th of July 1872?"

The Olympians are getting dry. Those who indulge in the "ardent" can find nourishment, but the Echo, a temperance journal, says: "One of two things is absolutely needed for our future happiness—we mean present comfort—a thunder shower to clear the atmosphere or a street sprinkler."

The Echo says: "Great fires are raging along the Sound, that cause a cloud of smoke to envelop the whole country, and which increase in volume every hour. For three years past the conflagrations in the woods have not only caused great destruction of timber, but filled the whole country with smoke that shut out everything. It will no doubt continue so long as there is land to clear and timber to burn."

Hon. S. W. Hovey, of Port Gamble, informs the Echo that Captain J. L. Emery, of the bark Buena Vista, with his mate (Mr. Black) and another man, went out to take a sail in a boat on the bay of San Francisco on the 4th of July, since which time they have not been heard from. It is supposed that the boat must have been capsized and all hands lost. The bark was bound for Alaska, and will be commanded by Captain Blackstone.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

An attempt to raise the San Juan-Lopez Island cable failed, it broke in two when half raised.

A new Lodge of Odd Fellows, to be called the Prince of Wales, is about to be established in Victoria.

A reward of $253 has been offered by the authorities of British Columbia for the apprehension of two land pirates, who are supposed to be committing reported depredations on settlers in the outlying districts.

The Sentinel says that two men were crushed to death on the 3d instant by a cave in the McLaughlin Company's hydraulic claim at Cariboo. The names of the men were Colin Chisholm and Roland Rowland.

George Bell, the man who killed Thomas Datson at Nanaimo on the 25th of last June, has been convicted of willful murder and sentenced to be hanged. His trial took place in the Nanaimo Court of Assizes on the 11th instant.

In San Francisco, a paper is being extensively circulated and signed by Democrats exclusively, pledging the signers to vote for Grant and Wilson, "as the would be leaders of the Democratic party had proved recreant to time honored principles by placing in nomination for President, Horace Greeley, a man who more than any other person living had done more to belie and abuse us." The getters up of this movement are men who hitherto always voted with the Democracy, and most of them are from that class of adopted citizens who have heretofore been the main support of the defunct Democratic party.

The Los Angeles News, the ablest and most influential Democratic journal in Southern California, declares that it will not support Greeley even if he is nominated at Baltimore. The Mariposa Free Press, edited by Hon. James H. Lawrence, is in the same boat.

The Toledo Blade says: "Every plunderer, every treasury robber, every Tammany thief in New York, is howling for Greeley and reform with a vehemence that makes an honest man shiver."

"Eating cat pie and calling it venison," is the way the Mobile Register, Democratic, defines the unsavory process of swallowing Greeley by the Democracy.

Remarkable Cure of Mr. Abram Tully.

San Jose, August 2, 1871.

DR. A. M. LOBYEA & Co.—Some two years since I was taken down with Inflammatory Rheumatism, and was for some time treated by two physicians, but got no better. I tried nearly every remedy I heard of, but none seemed to do me any good, until about two weeks ago I was advised by Judge J. Johnson to try your INK WEED REMEDY. I procured one bottle and was entirely cured. For six weeks before taking the INK I was compelled to go upon crutches. I consider your remedy a great blessing to suffering humanity, and would do it any duty to inform all Rheumatics of its great virtues. Yours, etc.,

ABRAM TULLY.

Ordinance No. 1189.

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE TIME and manner of improving that part of North Second Street lying between E and G streets.

The City of Portland does ordain as follows:

Section 1. The proposed improvement of that part of North Second street lying between E and G streets, shall be completed on or before the 1st day of October, 1872.

Section 2. The surface of the street shall be cleared of all planks, timbers, or other obstacles and perishable materials, sidewalks, and crosswalks of the proper width and grade excepted. If the obstructions are not removed by the owners of the adjacent lots within five days from the service of notice by the Street Commissioner, they shall be removed by and become the property of the contractor.

Section 3. The improvement shall consist of grading to the established grade.

Section 4. The work to be done and materials furnished shall correspond with the provisions of, and under the restrictions contained in Sections 6, of Ordinance No. 793, entitled "An Ordinance in relation to the improvement of streets."

Section 5. The contractor shall take entire charge of the work during its progress, and shall be responsible for any loss or accident, resulting from carelessness or neglect.

Section 6. The Committee on Streets and Public Property are hereby authorized to advertise for proposals, receive bids and enter into contract with the lowest responsible bidder or bidders for the improvement specified in this Ordinance.

Section 7. The improvement shall be completed to the satisfaction of the Committee on Streets and Public Property, and the Street Commissioner.

Passed the Common Council July 17, 1872.

W. S. CALDWELL,
Auditor and Clerk.

Approved July 19, 1872.

PHILIP WASSERMAN,
Mayor.

SATURDAY MORNING JULY 20 1872

A LATTER DAY SAINT.—A gentleman just from Salt Lake who has been doing the city and its sights for a few weeks past informs us that the Tabernacle of Brigham Young covers as much area as one of the blocks in this city—211 feet square. It will comfortably seat 13 000 persons. The organ used in the Tabernacle is as tall as any two story house which can be found in Portland. The Saints in their devotions evidently mean business. The same gentleman informs us that fifty men are engaged at work on the new Temple which is of less dimensions than the Tabernacle. The building will be constructed of the finest quality of stones polished to the highest state of which they are susceptible. It is estimated that the structure will require twelve years to complete. The rapid revolution in public ideas, and the liberal, progressive tendencies of the present age render it extremely questionable if this last structure will ever be devoted to the purposes for which it is being erected

FRUITS AND BERRIES.—The season of the year has now come when fruits and berries which are ripe and in a proper eating condition are not only precious luxuries but really great promoters of health. When partaken of in limited quantities, they act upon the liver and aid that secretion ... lly required, which many are in the habit of ... ing through medical assistance. Many ... to which flesh is heir resulting from a torpid condition of the liver are thus averted. NEW DREDGER.—Plans and specifications for a new dredger are being prepared at the office of Maj. Roberts which, as soon as completed, will be ready for bidders for the contract. The new ... will be considerably larger than the old one. The length of the "crane" on the old ... only admits of its operating at a depth of ... feet, while the new one will enable the ma... to work effectively at a depth of 30 feet. Work is annually suspended for some time during the summer months on account of the stage of water. The new dredger will enable the work to be prosecuted several weeks longer each year. The intention is to work with both the old and new, as soon as the latter has been completed. The result of the work will then be much more ... At present the old dredger is undergoing some long needed repairs, but work will be ...med in a few weeks

RAILROAD IRON.—The brig Perpetua brought up on the last trip 1,050 bars of iron for the Walla Walla and Columbia River Railroad. A few weeks ago 1,100 rails were brought up and shipped to their destination. These bars differ very materially from the ordinary ones in use on the roads here. They are about two and a half inches broad, three-quarters of an inch thick and twenty feet long. Wooden rails will first be laid, on which will be placed these strip-like rails, and ...ly spiked down. This temporary kind of road will last ... time until the company at ... engaged in constructing grow stronger in ..., or the increasing trade and travel of the ... justify the company in incurring greater ex... in building a more permanent track.

THE BRIDGE.—We called yesterday at the office of the Bridge Company, No. 100 Front street, and ascertained that the plans for the bridge are nearly completed. Delay has been occasioned on ... of the difficulty in obtaining copies of the hydrographic chart and profiles of the bed of the river, which must be filed with the bridge plans in the Auditor's office. These have been ... at considerable expense, and in a short time will be presented to the Council. We ... that active operations will be inaugurated shortly, provided the plans for the work are ... by the Council

GAME LAW MEETING.—We have been requested to state that a meeting will be held this evening at half past seven o'clock, at the Police Court room, of all who favor the passage of a game law. All who believe that such a law should be put in force are invited to attend and take part. We have long had no doubt of the propriety of such a step and trust that the meeting this evening will be well attended and that systematic ar...ments will be made to effect the desired object. An organization of a Sportsman's Club will also be undertaken

ARRESTED.—A man was arrested last evening for seeking to enter into a conversation with the jury, before whom was tried the case of William F. O'Reilly, charged with assault and battery. The jury were confined in the room occupied by Judge Denny, when the fellow, standing on the opposite side of the street, commenced to talk to the jury through the open windows in a loud voice which attracted a crowd. He was arrested at once, but gave bail and was released from custody. The case will come up before Judge Denny this morning

SOMETHING NEW.—The Pittsburgh Commercial has the following, which will sound strange to the ears of Oregon readers: "Oregon it is believed will eventually become a great tea growing State. Of 20,000 plants on one plantation 4 000 have been sowed and are now being removed from the unsuitable flat to a hillside locality where, under the care of a Japan tea man the experiment will be fairly tried of the adaptability of the climate to tea culture"

REPRIMANDED.—A small boy whose name we suppress, was brought before Judge Denny yesterday on a charge of assault and battery on another little boy. He was severely reprimanded by the Judge and discharged with ut be... imposition of any fine. A House of Correction will soon become an indispensable necessity

OUT OF SERVICE.—The engine of Fire Company No 1 is out of service for a few days for the purpose of being overhauled and having some slight repairs made. She will soon be all right and her gallant boys ready to bring her quickly to bear on the fire fiend, wherever he shows his destroying presence

DELAYED.—We are informed by the postmaster that no eastern mails have been received for the last three days, either by way of the Dalles or Sacramento. The cause of the delay is inexplicable. The letters, however come through regularly

REFITTED.—The office of the County Clerk is now undergoing a thorough renovation. Portions of the furniture will be re...ed with paint and the walls ... The interior of the Court House will be ... manner

PERSONAL.—Mr A M ..., a prominent resident of ... and lately from New York arrived here yesterday. Many of his old acquaintances were glad to see him

ASSAULT.—A case of assault and battery was disposed of before Justice ... yesterday. The defendant was fined ... and ... paid and was discharged

PLANTATION BITTERS!

S. T.--1860--X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates tropical, temperate or frigid it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

A BOY'S DEFENSE.

The scene was in Sacramento street, in front of a well known hotel. It was twenty-two years ago, and San Francisco was in her infancy.

Quite a crowd had gathered on the streets, and the center of attraction was a big fellow, who stood with a newspaper in his hand, raving in [illegible]

[illegible] Wolf [illegible] with the [illegible]

[illegible] for that was his [illegible] enough it'll [illegible] some folks [illegible] paper [illegible] published [illegible] death for [illegible]

Wolf was a noted desperado, who, it was said, had killed more than twenty men, and but few knew him who did not fear him. He was at that time chief of a gang of loafers and gamblers that were nearly always to be found lounging in the vicinity alluded to, and disturbing the peace of the whole neighborhood daily with riotous conduct. If there was any law in those days it was seldom executed against such characters, and in the full consciousness that they were feared they did pretty much as they pleased.

The newspaper which had given deadly offense to Wolf was a little weekly journal, and its office was in the second story of a building on the same street with the hotel I have mentioned, and only a few rods distant. It was published by two young men—or, I might say, boys, for they were only eighteen and twenty years old, respectively—named Darrell and Kaynes. The paper and its youthful proprietors were already well known in the city of San Francisco.

The article which had excited the wrath of the ruffian Wolf was a bold denunciation of himself and his crowd, and in particular mentioned him by name, characterizing him as a "blustering bully." It was the work of young Darrell, a fearless boy hailing from the Western States. Before leaving his home in the Mississippi valley, he had acquired a fair education, so that he could at least edit a newspaper in those early days; and he possessed, besides, that courage and daring which may be natural in the first place, and which are more thoroughly developed by exposure to danger and hardships. Young Kaynes was quite a different kind of person in point of courage, being of an unusually timorous nature.

To return to the scene on Sacramento street. Working himself up into his very worst mood—and his best was bad enough—Wolf tore the paper to atoms and started for the publication office. He was followed by a curious rabble, most of whom were elated with the prospect of a murder, though there were some present who would have remonstrated with the evil-hearted man, had they dared.

"Jest you watch," said Wolf, as he reached the door, "if ye want to see the'r bloody carcasses tumble out o' the window. I won't be long; I don't spend much time on such fellows."

It was the intention of the cruel-hearted man actually to cut the throats of the boyish journalists and throw their bodies out of the window, for the gratification of the crowd, and the further exaltation of his already fearful name. So the mob on the street awaited the issue with feverish expectation, as Wolf, flourishing his knife and revolver, entered the rude frame building and rushed up stairs.

All unconscious of their danger, the two young editors were busily pursuing their usual work in their primitive office. If they had heard the noise without, they paid no attention to it, supposing it was merely a street row such as they are accustomed to hearing every day. Darrell was sitting at a rude table writing, and Kaynes was at the counter arranging some papers for the mail.

They heard the clatter of heavy boots on the stairs, but supposed it was some rough miner coming to subscribe for the paper, or, perhaps, to see a lawyer who occupied a couple of rooms on the same floor; for the building was only a two-story one, and the second floor was occupied exclusively by them and an attorney—their rooms being separated from his by a narrow hall-way that was reached by the flight of stairs alluded to.

"Ah, ha! I've got ye, me young imps!" exclaimed the desperado, bursting in.

Kaynes recognized him and turned pale. Being at the counter, which faced the door and extended across the room, he was naturally the first mark for Wolf's vengeance.

"Ye young rascals!" he hissed, scowling like a madman, "Ye'll never write nor print nothin' more, 'bout me." Here he flourished his knife and revolver above his head. "I've got a sure thing on both of ye!" Saying this he looked about him, with a careful scrutiny, to see that there was no means of escape for the quiet youth at the table, who of course would not dare to jump over the counter and try to pass him, but would cower down in a corner and take his turn at being killed; then he reached across the counter and seized Kaynes by the hair, which was unfortunately very long.

Coiling the terrified young man's locks around the great, coarse fingers of the left hand, Wolf laid the revolver upon the counter, without the slightest apprehension that his youthful adversary would snatch it up and use it on him, as he might have done had he possessed the nerve, then flourished his big gleaming knife deliberately with pure fiendishness, prolonged Kaynes terror and pain.

"Now, pray, you young un'" he hissed. "You've got a couple o' seconds or so left—just while I'm clippin' yer ears off. I'll take 'em off first, clean and smooth, then I'll cut yer throat an' throw yer out o' the winder. D'ye hear that?"

Such was Wolf's reliance on the terror his name everywhere inspired, that he never dreamed of resistance. He simply intended to butcher the two young men, and such a thing as an obstacle to his will was not to be thought of. Had Darrell possessed no more nerve than Kaynes there can be no doubt that they would have been murdered then and there in exact accordance with Wolf's programme.

"Time!" he said, grinding his teeth in an ecstacy of rage, and drawing Kaynes' white face closer to his own repulsive countenance. "They're a waitin' to see yer carcass drap down into the street." Here he flourished his knife, and selected his mark. "Right ear first. Watch how clean an' smooth I'll take it off, I won't even touch a hair."

Kaynes bawled for mercy. "O—O don't" the poor fellow shrieked, trembling with terror "O, don't, Mr. Wolf! I didn't write that, on my soul!" and he whined like a schoolboy.

"None o' yer lyin!" said Wolf fiercely, "Yer both wrote it, darn ye an' both of ye'll pay for it!" Here he executed decided circles with his flashing knife, having apparently prolonged the torture as much as he desired, "Here goes, look out when I count three." The knife was ready to descend. "One—two

He stopped and started. He had not observed the movement of young Darrell during the last few seconds, and just as he was on the point of clipping off Kaynes ear in the polished manner he had descanted upon, he found the muzzle of a rifle thrust almost into his face

It was a loaded rifle, which, luckily, a friend of Darrell's had left in his keeping that very morning while he went out to make some purchases. It had stood in a corner of the room near his table, and Darrell had seized it, cocked and levelled it with such dexterity that he had Wolf covered before his movements were observed, and he stood motionless as a statue his cool eye glancing over the sights, and a steady finger on the trigger

"You great bully" he said. "drop that knife instantly Mind, I came from the country where they shoot squirrels only through the eye I can hit any hair of your big head that you will mention at a hundred yards Drop that knife"

The ruffian was fairly paralyzed, He relaxed his grip on poor Kaynes, who sank fainting on the floor, and his murderous knife fell upon the counter. So unexpected was this bold attitude of Darrell that Wolf was more startled than he would if a dozen of the roughest men in California had assailed him

There stood the boyish editor, motionless as the wall, and the muzzle of the rifle did not move the breadth of a hair. Darrell held the desperado's life in his hands.

"You cowardly bully!" he repeated contemptuously, "don't dare to move, I can send a bullet through your eyeball without touching the white. Don't move the eighth of an inch, or I'll do it, and throw your filthy carcass out of the window!"

Wolf glanced at his revolver lying upon the counter, within two feet of his eye, but did not venture to reach for it

"Dare to touch that revolver—so much as look at it again, said Darrell, "and I'll make a red picture on the wall there behind you. You blustering, bragging knave! you are a coward at heart [illegible] You came up here to murder two boys [illegible] the [illegible] easy task, and now you are pale and trembling with fear. I would kill [illegible] your tracks, but that I don't want your dirty blood on my hands. Go, now. Turn instantly. Leave your knife and revolver where they are. I'll keep them. Go down to your friends on the street, and tell them a boy whipped you, disarmed you and kicked you down stairs. Do as I tell you, instantly. If you hesitate, you will never see the sun set."

Wolf, trembling from head to foot, glanced once more at his revolver, but did not dare to raise his hand. His face was pale and his lips were dry.

"Do you hear me?" demanded Darrell, sternly

"Yes, yes, don't shoot!" replied Wolf, turning about, as commanded. He was thoroughly cowed.

"Do not turn your ugly face this way again," said Darrell, "for you will pay for it with your life. Move!"

Tamer than a whipped cur, the ruffian walked toward the door, and Darrell, springing over the counter, was at his heels in an instant.

"Don't look back, or I'll kill you"

Meekly obeying the imperative orders of the youth, Wolf moved slowly out of the room into the narrow corridor.

"Be careful, don't—don't let that gun go off," Wolf stammered, as he reached the head of the stairs.

At this moment the clamors of the impatient crowd below arose with terrible distinctness, and one shrill voice was heard to say:

"Hurry up, Wolf. Why don't you throw them fellers out?"

Exasperated beyond measure, he was on the point of turning back, at the risk of his life, for after all his braggadocio how could he face those below, disarmed and chased out of the building by one of the puny boys he had intended so terribly to chastise? But Darrell was after him, and with one vigorous kick sent him heels over head down the wooden stairs, with a thundering clatter, and rolling over the doorsill, the defeated bully actually tumbled out upon the street before he could recover his equilibrium.

"Hello! How's this? What's up?" asked a dozen voices at once, as the dreaded man reappeared in this undignified shape, without having sent any corpses down from the window

"Why, I simply kicked him down stairs—that's what's the matter!" responded the boyish voice of Darrell at the head of the stairs, "and if he comes up here again, I won't let him off so easily. Don't be afraid of him. I took all his weapons from him."

Wolf struggled to his feet, rubbing his head, and presenting such a ludicrous appearance that he was greeted with jeers and bursts of laughter. So completely had he tumbled from his lofty eminence in the eyes of those who either admired or feared a bold murderer, that they, who an hour ago would have dreaded to offend him by word or look, now regarded him only with contempt laughed at and derided him.

"Ha, ha, ha!" resounded on all sides. "Licked by a boy! Bah! Kicked down stairs by a child! Got your barkers took from you! Where's them corpses. Ha, ha, ha! You ought to be egged out of town! Three groans for Wolf!" and three groans were given with a will.

"Three cheers for the little boy that licked him!" was responded to by three loud and enthusiastic cheers.

Never before had the crowd seen a man with an established reputation, like Mr. Wolf, thus suddenly fall to such a depth of degredation. All his name, fame, prestige, melted away like a mist, and he was no longer feared—no longer respected by the low thieves and cut-throats around him—only despised. Yes, despised by the meanest of creatures, whom he had of times bullied as though they had been hounds.

How little, how pusillanimous he looked now, as he slunk away towards Montgomery street! Those who had known him for the past year regarded him as a giant, now fancied that he stood barely five feet six in his boots. The dread that had surrounded his name had cleared away like vapor.

Such was Wolf's mortification when he came fully to realize what a pitiable figure he had cut, that he left San Francisco, and was seen in her streets no more. The fatality that had apparently thus far shielded and assisted him in his murderous work now suddenly deserted him. He was destined never to commit another murder; but was himself shot dead in Sacramento within three weeks after the events narrated.

I do not know what become of Kaynes, or whether he is still alive, but I know that Darrell, the brave boy whose coolness and courage saved them both, is to-day a gentleman of position residing in a flourishing city of Nevada.

The Republican Party of the United States [illegible] National [illegible] and [illegible]

1. During [illegible] with grand courage [illegible] all intestinal [illegible] parallel [illegible] In the form of National currency it has provided for the National credit, and [illegible] most extraordinary [illegible] honestly applied. [illegible] the public debt [illegible] President at the rate of $100,000,000 per year. A great financial crisis has been averted, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the Nation kept in a high position throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future, and we believe that the people will not entrust the government to any party or combination of men composed of those who chiefly have resisted every step in this beneficent progress.

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and Federal legislation. Neither law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to citizens by reason of race, creed, color, or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are law, and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured those amendments.

4. The National Government seeks to maintain honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5. Any system of civil service [illegible] and [illegible] we therefore favor a reform of the system [illegible] which shall abolish the evils of patronage and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity the essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a life-tenure of office.

6. We are opposed to further grants of the public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the National domain be set apart for free settlement by the people.

7. The annual revenue, after paying current expenditures, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal of the [illegible] raised by duties [illegible] wages [illegible] to promote the [illegible]

8. [illegible]

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance, [illegible] having at last through [illegible] been abandoned, and the American idea of the right of an individual to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former Governments, and we urge continued and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary emigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished and a way prepared for reductions in the rates of postage.

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of shaping legislation so as to secure a full protection and ample field for capital, and for labor which creates capital the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an important duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions and for the protection of the ballot and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the Nation

13. We denounce the repudiation of public debts, in any form or disguise, as a national crime. We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of the debt, and of the rates of interest upon the balance and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption of specie payment.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom, their application to admission to further usefulness is received with satisfaction, and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve of the action of Congress in granting amnesty to those engaged in the rebellion and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16. The Republican party proposes to respect the rights reserved by the people to themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Federal governments. [illegible]

17. It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship building.

18. We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of U. S. Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day upon a new march to victory.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Old Diseases of long standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where the old patients and those requiring his services may find him

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible, life destroying maladies—see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves or rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained as soon as applied immediately, either in person or by letter, and a cure is effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a profound radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to every person who will prove satisfactorily to the Doctor that he was cured of the complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or Persons who contemplate marriage, who are suffering from any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy too work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Post Office Box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian
